

DEDICATION

This booklet is dedicated to the memory of Frank M. Jordan, who served as California's Secretary of State from January 1943 until his death on March 29, 1970.

Frank Jordan symbolized the scrupulously fair, nonpartisan approach to public service that has given California the most honest state government in the country. As chief election officer, he supervised hundreds of elections in all parts of California and gained a national reputation for efficiency and integrity.

PREFACE

This off-election year registration report shows registration totals following the post-election purge and reflects approximate voter turnout by party at the 1970 general election. The report is prepared under authority of Sections 458 and 6460 of the California Elections Code.

Cancellation of voter registration affidavits is made for several reasons, but the primary cause is for failure to vote at the general election.

County clerks and registrars of voters must cancel affidavits of registration on or before January 1 and report to the Secretary of State by January 11.

The next Report of Registration will be published in February 1972 and will reflect political party strength at the beginning of the election year.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Secretary of State

January 11, 1971
