

PREFACE

Although voter registration by mail did not take effect until July 1, 1976, we felt it would be appropriate to highlight the subject by the use of this cover design on the May 9 Report of Registration. Due to implementing legislation in 1975, California residents are now eligible to register to vote by completing a registration postcard, and mailing it to the county clerk or registrar of voters in the county in which they reside. Registration procedures should not be a deterrent to voting, and with registration by mail, they no longer are. Access to registration, and, therefore, voting, is now easier. I urge all persons eligible to register to vote to do so.

This May 9, 1976 Report of Registration, the 30-day pre-primary election report, is prepared under authority of California Elections Code Sections 458, 6430, and 6460.
