PREFACE

This Report of Registration reflects the first statistics available to measure the impact of the new mail registration system which went into effect on July 1st of this year. Between May 9 (the pre-primary election registration deadline) and October 4 (the pre-general election registration deadline), 1,271,359 new registrants were added to the voter rolls in California. I am encouraged by this increase in citizen participation, and hope the number of registrants will continue to grow.

This Report contains a new feature: namely, a count of voters, by county, affiliated with certain non-qualified parties. Statutes 1976, Chapter 429, established new law by requiring a group of electors, desiring to qualify a new political party, to first form a political body by undertaking certain action, including, but not limited to, filing with the Secretary of State a prescribed notice. The bill would also require the Secretary of State, upon receipt of such notice, to notify each county clerk of the intent to qualify a new political party. The county clerks would then be required to tabulate political affiliations from the affidavits of registrations. The Secretary of State would be required, upon request by a political body, to count towards qualification of a political party voters declared in the affidavits of registration to be affiliated with the political body.

This October 4, 1976 Report of Registration is prepared under authority of California Elections Code Sections 458, 6430, and 6460.
